

PLAYER / PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Goal & Objective

Our most important objective is to focus on developing our players for both on the field and off the field decision-making opportunities. Teaching players the fundamental skills of soccer as a game is just part of the overall equation. Teaching them how to play as a team, while focusing on having fun, and reaching their personal goals are key elements in our coaching philosophy.

About our Coaches

All of our head coaches hold at least an USSF "E" level coaching license. Also, for the overall safety of the players, all coaches and assistant coaches over the age of 18 have an MSYSA Risk Management card, which certifies that a background check has been completed.

Players Code of Conduct

The following standard are established by the CASSA Club and govern the behavior of all CASSA players before, during and after soccer matches

- Never address remarks at opposing coaches, players, referees and/or spectators (except for genuine friendship, respect or in response to a question by a referee).
- Never retaliate when fouled.
- Avoid comments or gestures that express disagreement with the official's call.
- Displays of temper will not be tolerated on the field or in playing area.
- Convey a consistently positive attitude toward your teammates or coaches. Your true strength of character will be displayed on the field.
- Play for fun and obey the rules of the game.
- Be a good sport and cheer all good plays.
- Follow the Golden Rule: Treat others as you would like to be treated.
- Accept defeat with dignity. Good losers earn more respect than bad winners.

Parent Code of Conduct

Parents can be a very positive influence on the game of soccer and are encouraged to attend as many contests as possible to support their children. However, being a spectator is not without responsibility. To the extent to which spectators can be a positive influence, they can equally be a negative force. Parents and spectators of the CASSA Club are expected to:

- Remember that children are playing for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Encourage fair play and respect for the laws of the game.
- Teach that honest effort is as important as victory.
- Remember that children learn by example.
- Applaud good plays by ALL players, even those on opposing teams.
- Respect the official's judgement and refrain from negative comments.
- Recognize that all of our coaches are volunteers, so be supportive.
- Remember timing is everything – communication should always be avoided immediately after a contest
